

INDIVIDUAL VOLUNTEER POLICY

Please make certain you have read and agree to the following before checking the box below.

- Individuals accepted for volunteer placement will be sent a Volunteer Agreement defining the volunteer project(s) prior to the start date of the stated project(s).
- Volunteers agree to perform service without compensation and are not considered employees of Covenant House Washington. As such, Covenant House Washington does not provide Worker's Compensation or any other insurance coverage for volunteers.
- Group Volunteers must identify a Group Contact prior to the start of a project who will serve responsible for the safety and well-being of all group members. The group contact agrees to: 1. Provide coordination and supervision for group while volunteering. 2. Ensure all members adhere to Covenant House Washington rules, regulations, and procedures. 3. Report to the volunteer coordinator any behavior, actions, or language inappropriate for the established activity, location, or group which may endanger the health and/or well-being of the individual, other group members, or Covenant House Washington youth and/staff.
- Covenant House Washington accepts the service of all volunteers with the understanding that approval for such service is at the sole discretion of Covenant House Washington, and we cannot guarantee volunteer placement. We make every effort to match volunteer applicants to volunteer opportunities according to the needs of the organization and the interests and availability of the volunteer(s). Covenant House Washington further reserves the right to withhold any such reason(s) for refusal from the individual or group.
